What's moving in AI.

AI NEWS

AI just took over the follow-up.

Every 2026 real estate AI roundup now centers on the same use case: automated follow-up and database nurture. Why that one? Because it's the marketing task agents can't sustain by hand. The stat the whole industry keeps citing: 80% of deals need five or more follow-ups, but most agents quit after one.

BOB BURG

— FOR YOU. FOR THIS ROOM. —

Your engine is only as big as your audience.

- 1 The right message means nothing with no one to send it to.
- 2 Daily follow-up means nothing with no one to follow up with.
- 3 Enough people is the fuel.

This week: fill the tank.

— A 4-WEEK BUILD —

The Marketing Engine month.

P

✓ WEEK 01

The Problem

WED AUG 5

Why marketing is the business now, where agents fall short, and the engine that fixes it.

T

✓ WEEK 02

Enough Times

WED AUG 12

Consistency is marketing: the 33-Touch, the numbers the top coaches live by, the engine that never forgets.

R

✓ WEEK 03

The Right Thing

WED AUG 19

Say the right thing: the script whose only job is to set the appointment. Do not over-qualify, get in front of them.

D

WEEK 04

Enough People

WED AUG 26

Fill the database: gather the leads and grow the audience your engine markets to.

● YOU ARE HERE

— THE PROOF —

More people, more deals.

- 1 Sphere and referrals run this business. Most clients choose an agent they know or were sent to. (NAR)
- 2 About 1 deal per 16 people you keep in real contact.
- 3 A database that is not growing is quietly shrinking.

The size of your database sets the ceiling on your business.

Not a lead problem. An audience problem.

- 1 "I don't know enough people" is almost never true. Your contacts are just scattered.
- 2 Leads you buy are rented. They vanish when the spend stops.
- 3 An audience you build is owned. It compounds for years.

Stop renting attention. Start owning it.

Eight places to build your database.

1 Sphere of influence

Everyone you already know

3 Referrals

Ask your people for the introduction

5 Open houses

Capture every visitor

7 AI search and content

Get found on Google and ChatGPT, through GEO

2 Past clients

4 Geographic farm

Own one neighborhood

6 Social media

Turn followers into contacts

8 Referral partners

Lenders, title, local business owners

You do not need all eight. Pick three and work them every week.

Pull from all 50 and most agents find 300 to 600 people.

A list alone makes no money.

- 1 Most agents build a list, then do nothing with it. It goes stale.
- 2 Random effort produces random income. Referrals happen by accident, if at all.
- 3 Worked consistently, it compounds: year one it produces, year two referrals stack, year three most of your business is referrals.

Nobody wakes up with a referral business. It is built, on repeat.

How a database produces deals.

- 1 250 people, touched 16 times a year, so they stay warm.
- 2 About 5% to 7% of them buys or sells each year: 12 to 18 moves, with or without you.
- 3 Consistent touches earn you about half of those calls. (NAR: 40% to 60% repeat and referral)
- 4 That is 6 to 9 deals: at a $9k average commission, $54k to $81k a year.

Grow the database by 100 and you add 2 to 4 deals a year.

You won't grow it by hand. The engine will.

- 1 GEO gets you found by new people every day.
- 2 Origin gives them a reason to remember you.
- 3 Clara keeps every one of them warm.

One engine. It grows your people and markets to them, for you.

Right thing. Enough times. Enough people.

- 1 Say the right thing: the message that books the appointment.
- 2 Say it enough times: the touches that keep you remembered.
- 3 To enough people: the database that feeds it all.

That is the Marketing Engine. Origin, GEO, and Clara run it, so you can get back to selling.
