What's moving in AI.

AI NEWS

Realtor.com launches a search app inside ChatGPT.

Buyers can now ask ChatGPT about homes and Realtor.com surfaces listings AND agents in the response. The agents that get recommended share one trait: a clear, specific niche the AI can match on. Generalists down. Specialists get found.

WHY THIS MATTERS

For this room. For this community.

*Clear is kind.
Unclear is unkind.*

— BRENE BROWN

— FOR YOU. FOR THIS ROOM. —

Reviews get you indexed. Clarity gets you recommended.

LAST WEEK • BE FOUND

Reviews are the new SEO.

- AI search ranks your Realtor.com + Zillow review profile.
- More reviews = more AI visibility.
- Specific reviews = AI knows what you sell.

THIS WEEK • BE CHOSEN

A clear niche makes AI pick you.

- Person — the one human you serve.
- Problem — the real pain you solve.
- Process — your named way of solving it.

Who wants extra accountability?

Drop your personal goals in the community.

— A 3-WEEK BUILD —

The Positioning Series.

● YOU ARE HERE

WEEK 01

Niche

WED JUN 10

The 3 P's — Person, Problem, Process. Lock the human you serve.

WEEK 02

Offer

WED JUN 17

Promise · Container · Guarantee · Pillars. Wrap your Niche in an Offer.

WEEK 03

Mechanism

— BEFORE THE FRAMEWORK —

Where your Niche lives.

Stay in one circle and you're a generalist, a hobbyist, or a missionary.
Land in the middle and you're a magnet.

Same market. Same license. Different result.

Two agents in the Twin Cities. One gets the referral every time. The other doesn't.

AGENT A

"I help people buy and sell homes in the Twin Cities."

RESULT · GENERIC. FORGETTABLE. SOUNDS LIKE EVERYONE.

AGENT B · THE WINNER

"I help first-time buyers in the north metro win bidding wars without overpaying, using a pre-offer strategy session most agents skip."

RESULT · THE BUYER WHO JUST LOST THREE OFFERS KNOWS EXACTLY WHO TO CALL.

Same market. Same license. Agent B gets the referral every time — because she picked a lane, named a problem, and owned a process. That's the whole game today.

Meet Kayla.

Kayla is a Twin Cities agent who picked a lane. Watch what happens when you fill in the 3 P's for one real human. "Kayla · The Downsizing Specialist."

01 · PERSON

Empty-nesters, 60–75, north metro.

Ready to sell the family home and move into something smaller and simpler. The kids are out. The house is too big. The lawn won.

02 · PROBLEM

Stuck between selling and being homeless.

Overwhelmed by 30 years of stuff. Emotionally attached to the house. Terrified of selling before they have somewhere to land.

03 · PROCESS

The "Downsize Without the Dread" system.

A guided path that handles the sale, the timing, and the move so they never feel rushed or stuck between two homes.

Pick one human.

Don't describe a demographic. Describe a person you could pick out of a crowd. The more specific, the more magnetic.

ASK YOURSELF

- Which clients do you genuinely enjoy working with the most?
- Which clients do you get the best results for?
- Which are easiest to serve and easiest to sell to?
- What do those people have in common — life stage, situation, neighborhood, mindset?

WHAT "SPECIFIC" LOOKS LIKE

- Move-up buyers with young kids in top-rated school districts.
- Divorcing couples who need to sell quickly, fairly, with little conflict.
- Out-of-state investors buying their first rental in my market.
- Relocating tech professionals on a 30-day timeline, buying sight-unseen.

Find the real one.

People don't buy real estate services. They buy the solution to the problem keeping them up at night. Name the emotional one underneath the logistics.

FIRST-TIME
BUYER

SURFACE: "I need to find a house."

REAL → "I keep losing to cash offers and I'm scared I'll never get out of renting."

MOVE-UP SELLER

SURFACE: "I need to sell my house."

REAL → "I can't buy the next one until mine sells, but I can't sell until I know where we're going — and I'm stuck."

INVESTOR

SURFACE: "I want a rental."

REAL → "I'm afraid I'll buy in the wrong area and lose money on a bad tenant or a money pit."

Name your way.

The 2–4 steps you walk every client through — then give it a name you own. It doesn't have to be complicated. It has to be clear and yours.

ASK YOURSELF

- Why is your way better than the competition or their other options?
- What are the 2–4 steps or pillars you walk every client through?
- If you gave your process a name, what would you call it?

NAMED PROCESS EXAMPLES

- The Offer-Ready Method — fully pre-underwritten + strategy-mapped before we tour a single home.
- The Sell-and-Land Plan — line up your next home AND your sale timing together, so you're never stuck between two houses.
- The 9-Point Top-Dollar Prep — a fixed checklist we run on every home before it hits the market.

PERMISSION GRANTED

Don't get stuck here. A working name is enough for now — you'll sharpen it in Week 3 (Mechanism). The goal today is to pick one.

Your one-paragraph positioning statement.

Fill in the blanks with what you locked today. This is the thing you can say at a listing appointment, on a podcast, or to your sphere — and have it land every time.

I help [your person] achieve [the outcome they want] without [the thing they dread]. Unlike the usual approach of [the common method that fails], my [named process] means they finally [the dream outcome].

DO THIS TODAY

Lock your Person + Problem + Process in the workbook before you close your laptop tonight. Drop your positioning statement in YourInnerCirql.com. The room reads it back next Wednesday — then we craft your Offer around it.

— THE POSITIONING SERIES • WEEK 2 OF 3 —

Craft Your Offer.

Wed Jun 17 • 10 AM CT. We take your locked Niche and wrap it in a Promise, Container, Guarantee, and Pillars. Bring your Week 1 homework.
